Introduction and Historical Notes
WHERE WE ARE

The Complesso Santo Spirito is located in the centre of Rome, a few steps from Saint Peter Basilica!
A LITTLE BIT OF HISTORY...

• The Complesso Monumentale Santo Spirito in Sassia was an ancient hospital for poor people and pilgrims founded by the Pope Innocenzo III in the XII century. It arises on the ruins of the Schola Saxonum.

• During the Renaissance, the Complesso was rebuilt by Pope Sisto IV and decorated by the major Italian painting schools of that age. It became a raw model for studying and researching about the medicine and one of the most important hospital in Europe.

• Leonardo Da Vinci lived for few years in Rome and worked at the Santo Spirito, studying and enhancing his knowledge of the anatomy of the human body in various ways.
...AND ARTISTIC BEAUTIES

- Andrea Bregno carved a marble door named the "Door of the Heaven", XV century, recently restored by Giubilarte.

- Inside the Santo Spirito there is the largest concentration of frescoes of the XIV century.

- It is still possible to visit the Museum of Medical Instruments located in the Alessandrina Accademy.

KEY INFORMATION ABOUT THE VENUE

• Old hospital dating back to the 1475. Until 1986, the Baglivi hall served as a medical department adjacent to and part of the new hospital S. Spirito.

• Stored inside the Lancisiana Library, is a very important collection of ancient manuscripts attributed even to the likes of Leonardo Da Vinci.
General Principles for Venue Selection

- The Complesso Santo Spirito fulfills the scientific, logistical and organizational criteria for the venue selection process.

- The prestige, the history and the uniqueness do not represent a hurdle in the venue selection process because the Santo Spirito is located in the historic center of Rome and it is strictly connected with and part of the city.

In Particular...the Congress Venue

- Due to its uniqueness, the Complesso Santo Spirito is particularly able to strengthen the scientific motivations necessary for choosing this venue for medical events.

- Being an old hospital and adjacent to the new hospital facility, the Santo Spirito has no restrictions in term of the period of the year to be determined for organizing a medical congress.

- As a hospital structure, it has the great advantage to obtain important CME credits for medical conventions comparing with a hotel structure.
