COMPANY PROFILE

Congress Studio Venezia International specializes in the organization of congresses, conventions, workshops, seminars, social and cultural programs.

The company was founded in 1999 by Patrizia Pala Cariello, who had many years of prior experience working with an important PCO in Milan. Congress Studio has been certified according to the International Quality Standard UNI EN ISO 9001:2008 and has implemented and maintains a quality management system which fulfils the requirement of the related international standard.

Patrizia Pala Cariello, owner and managing director, was conferred the designation of Certified Meeting Professional (CMP) by the Convention Industry Council. She is a member of the body of teachers and facilitators of the Italian Federation of Professional Organizers. These qualifications will ensure that the services provided will be of the highest quality.
Continuous investments both in technology and human resources allowed the company to grow.

Congress Studio considers it a priority as well a distinctive and decisive factor to set a new standard of excellence in serving the clients' highest expectations in the most creative, customized and value driven way. Courtesy is one of the company's trade-marks: it tells clients they can rely on a dedicated, knowledgeable and accessible team of qualified professionals and live the experience of successful events in a pleasant and relaxed atmosphere.

We at Congress Studio are seeing the value in implementing CSR strategies and are taking greater responsibility for the impact of our actions on the environment as well as on employees, customers, suppliers and more generally, on the community in which we operate.
