SURROUNDING

Nearby the Patrizia Romana Palace you will find restaurants, bars, banks, day and night pharmacies, post office, ambulance service, two synagogues (one of Italian and the other Sephardic rite), shops of all kinds and a local market; in addition, on Sundays, you can visit one of the most famous markets in the world: "Porta Portese". The Residence is well connected with the Roman Forum, Colosseum and all other historical sites, thanks to the proximity of public transport stops. In a few minutes it is possible to reach Trastevere, one of the most characteristic neighborhoods of Rome, considered to be a destination for intellectuals and artists from all over the world, the heart of the capital's nightlife. The area also houses the most important hospitals throughout the city: the "San Camillo", the National Institute "Lazzaro Spallanzani" and the "Carlo Forlanini", the Israelite hospital, the Bambin Gesù hospital, Fatebenefratelli, and the clinics of "Villa Pia" and "Villa Sandra". Take the "Terravision" bus to "Termini Station". Then take the Metro B line towards Laurentina, get off at the PIRAMIDE stop. Exit the surface and take line 719 for 18 stops 719 (every 15 min.). Get off at the Portuense / Ramazzini stop. A few more meters on foot and you will find yourself in Via di Vigna Jacobini.
